March 28, 2019

Life and loss...

It is with a heavy heart that I tell you about the death of Jim Rowland. Jim was an outstanding member of Citizen Corps of Delaware County (CCDC). His service to our organization is only shadowed by the the service he also provided to many other organization and love he had for his wife Sonya Fazio. Sonya is also part of our general leadership group and has served with Jim for many years on Citizen Corps. As soon as more information is available we will forward it to you. Please keep Sonya and her family in your hearts and minds.

If that is not enough, you may already know that Wilbur Wolf, one of our great friends and a huge part of how we came into existence lost his father, Wilbur E. Wolf Jr. last week as the result of a tragic accident on the family farm. Services are Saturday, January 12, 2019 in Newville, PA. In lieu of flowers donations can be made at Pennsylvania Wounded Warriors (<http://www.pawoundedwarriors.org/>), The Ruffed Grouse Society (<http://www.ruffedgrousesociety.org/>), and The Big Spring Bulldog Education Foundation (<https://www.bigspringbulldogfoundation.org/>)

Life is short, we need to make the best out of it. All of you have chosen to help others through your service with the CCDC. Please continue to learn and grow in this organization by attending training, meetings, and exerices, recruiting new volunteers, and getting out into your communities to help make them better prepared. There are many changes in our Corps for 2019!!! I will update more in the February bulletin.

January Training & Events: All of the links to events and trainings below have a full description of the event or training. These are also listed on the calendar at www.delcocitizencorps.com.
